

DONATION POLICY

The Afri-Youth Network (AYN) is committed to transparency and accountability in managing and utilizing donations. By contributing to AYN, you agree to the terms outlined in this Donation Policy

Purpose of Donations

All donations made to AYN are used to support our programs, initiatives, and operational costs aimed at empowering youth and fostering development. Contributions help us achieve the following:

- Conduct training sessions and workshops
- Provide resources and tools for youth development
- Maintain and expand our community outreach programs

Detailed information about our programs and financial accountability can be found on our website or by contacting us directly.

Donation Methods

We accept donations through the following channels:

- Online: Secure payments via our website using [credit/debit cards, bank transfers, or digital wallets].
- Offline: Direct bank transfers or in-person contributions.

For offline donations, please contact us at:

Email: admin@afriyouthnetwork.org

Privacy and Security

We value your trust and prioritize the protection of your personal and financial information. Our website uses encryption and secure payment gateways to ensure donor data remains confidential.

Refund Policy

As donations are charitable contributions, they are typically non-refundable. However, if you believe there has been an error in your transaction or need assistance, please contact us within 14 days of the donation at:

Email: admin@afriyouthnetwork.org

We will assess refund requests on a case-by-case basis.

Acknowledgment of Donations

We appreciate your support! All donors will receive acknowledgment via email, and contributions may be publicly recognized on our website or social media platforms unless anonymity is requested. To remain anonymous, please indicate your preference when making the donation or contact us directly.

Use of Funds

We are committed to using your contributions responsibly. Funds are allocated to the programs and initiatives outlined on our website. Regular updates and financial reports will be shared to ensure transparency.

Changes to the Donation Policy

AYN reserves the right to update this Donation Policy. Changes will be posted on this page, and continued contributions signify acceptance of the updated policy.
